Limitation of Substitutions

A player of the starting line-up may leave the game, but only twice in a set, and re-enter, but only twice in a set, and only to his/her previous position in the line-up.

A substitute player may enter the game in place of a player of the starting line-up, but only twice per set, and only to he/she can only be substituted by the same starting player.

Designated Club Libero

A player designated as a libero in a club is prohibited from playing as an attacker in a lower division after participating in more than three matches in a higher division. This execution is only allowed in the higher division if the team lacks the required six players at the start of the game. Furthermore, this adjustment is restricted to a maximum of two matches per season. Before the match begins, the coach or captain must inform the referee about the change in the libero's designation, and the player's name should not be recorded in the section designated for libero players.

Format

In the Division Three competition, teams will play a round robin format for the first round. At the conclusion of the first round the top eight team will play each other for the second round to determine the final placing and winners, Teams nine to thirteen will play for final placing.

All games except for Division 2 Men will be played two best of three, and the Division 2 Men will be three best of five.
